Common explanation :

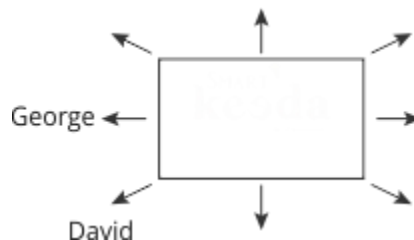

References:

David sits at one of the corners but does not like any ice-cream

George sits immediate right of David

Inferences:

Hence, David will sit at one of the corners and George will on the immediate right of him so we place both of them on the square shape table.

References:

Bill sits opposite to Fabio who likes ice-cream but not Vanilla

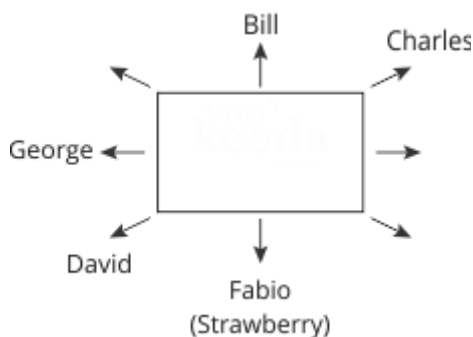

Neither Bill nor Fabio sits at the corner.

Charles sits third to the left of Fabio

Inferences:

Hence, Bill and Fabio sit on the middle of the sides and Fabio likes strawberry ice-cream.

From the second reference it is clear that Charles will sit on the corner opposite to David.

References:

Andrew sits at one of the corners but Andrew is not the immediate neighbor of Emma and Fabio.

Henry and Emma are immediate neighbors of each other.

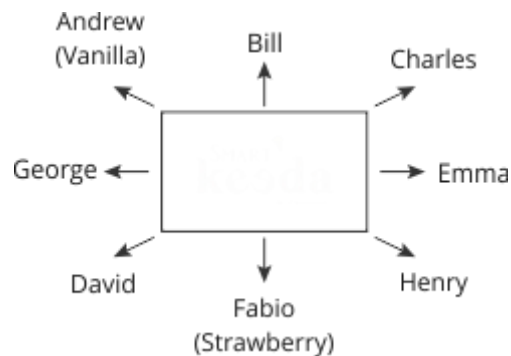

Henry sits opposite to the one who like Vanilla ice-cream.

George does not like any of the ice-cream

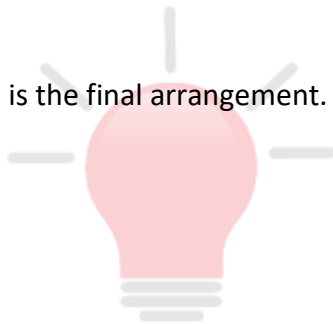

Inferences:

Hence, Andrew will sit immediately right of George.

As Henry and Emma are immediate neighbors of each other. Henry sits opposite to the one who like Vanilla ice-cream and it is also known that George does not like any ice-cream it means that Andrew likes Vanilla Ice-cream and sits opposite to Henry.

Now, this is the final arrangement.
