Puzzle Test Quiz 16

Directions: Study the following information carefully and answer the given questions.

Shiva has opened seven windows and has kept them in a form of a stack. He is surfing seven different subjects in seven different search engines viz. Yahoo, Bing, MSN, Lycos, Ask, Alexa and Google. The seven different subjects are Maths, Physics, Chemistry, Biology Zoology, Marketing, and Geography. The window which is on the front of the screen is the topmost tab.

There are three windows between the search engines Lycos and MSN. Search engines Ask and Alexa are running in the top and bottom windows. Biology and Chemistry are open in the windows which are below the window in which Alexa search engine is running but not in the bottom window. There are two windows between the window in which Shiva is surfing Biology and the window in which Bing Search Engine is running. Geography is opened in Google Search engine. The window in which Shiva is surfing Physics is just above the window in which MSN Search engine is running. There are two windows opened between the window in which the search engine Yahoo is running and the window in which Zoology is opened. Physics is not opened in Bing Search engine.
