Correct Answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
B	C	C	D	D	C	E	C	B	B

Explanations :

1. The original sentence is incorrect. A disease cannot be described as stern. Also, improving stress levels is the opposite of what is needed here. Like also does not make any sense.

Option A: Static and Impending (something about to happen) do not go with the context.

Option B: The words are correct in the context

Option C: All the words are irrelevant. Implode means to collapse or cause to collapse violently inwards.

Option D: All the words are incorrect. Improvising means to create spontaneously or without preparation.

Correct: Insomnia is becoming a very serious disease these days because of the increasing levels of stress among the young generation due to lack of employment opportunities.

Hence, Option B is the correct choice.

2. The original sentence is not correct since the highlighted words are not making sense as a coherent sentence.

Option A: All the words are incorrect. Adduce refers to cite something as evidence and does not fit in meaningfully.

Option B: Imply and Attrition (reducing something's strength) are not correct in the present context

Option C: All the words are correct. Averse refers to being against something.

Option D: Accustom and antiquity are not correct.

Correct: He was not at all ready to accept that his father was no more although he was all averse to his advice regarding any matter during his lifetime.

So, Option C is the correct choice.

3. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Extolled means to praise enthusiastically and is the opposite of what is needed here.

Option B: Of and traded both are incorrect.

Option D: Scored is incorrect as the third word here.

Option C: All the words are a perfect fit in the statement.

Correct: Economic reforms need to break the grip of stigmatized capitalism through more competitive markets, a reinstated fundamental right to property, greater reliance on rules rather than discretion, and a change in the way government contracts are awarded.

Hence, option C is correct.

4. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Registration is wrong here.

Option B: Leisurely is incorrect here.

Option C: Monumental is wrong here.

Option D: All the words are a perfect fit in the statement.

Correct: The implementation must begin at the back end, with incentives and tax benefits that could aid manufacturers in their gradual shift to alternatives for plastic.

Hence, option D is correct.

5. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Setting is incorrect.

Option B: Picture and period both are incorrect.

Option C: Terrain and managed both are incorrect.

Option D: All the words are a perfect fit in the statement.

Correct: The global start-up landscape is still dominated by the West, though a discernible shift is underway.

Hence, option D is correct.

6. The sentence is incorrect since the highlighted words are not making sense at all and at the same time, they are not grammatically correct as well.

Option A: All the given options are wrong

Option B: None of the words is correct

Option C: All the given words are correct

Option D: No word is correct

Correct: It is highly unlikely that India will be able to compete with China in terms of nuclear weapons as China has developed many advanced weapons thanks to the astounding success of technology in that country.

Clearly, Option C is the correct choice.

7. Since the given sentence is correct grammatically and also carries a meaning, no improvement is required in this statement.

Hence, Option E is the correct choice.

8. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Skill is wrong here.

Option B: Exports is wrong here.

Option D: Manufacturing is wrong here.

Option E: Sports is wrong here.

Correct: If the government's priorities are not for a radical expansion of accessible and affordable higher education committed to social justice, then its commitment to the country's development as a knowledge economy must be questioned.

Hence, option C is correct.

9. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Temper is wrong here.

Option C: Biased is wrong here

Option D: Full is wrong here.

Option E: Complete is wrong here.

Correct: Facing an intense public scrutiny over data leaks amid privacy concerns, Facebook has now called for the entire tech industry to come and protect people's data.

Hence, option B is correct.

10. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Fame is wrong here

Option C: Influenced is wrong here.

Option D: Praise is wrong here

Option E: Homage is wrong here

Correct: The respect and esteem that our educators once enjoyed needs to be restored and the universities need to think of evolving a strategy to hire the best people and offer them attractive salaries and working conditions to keep them motivated.

Hence, option B is correct.
